

2012 Muret-Gaston Cabernet Sauvignon

Cassis, dark black fruits, clove, savory and eucalyptus leaves, carry through the long finish on a platform of fine grained tannins. This wine will age well through 2023.

Present Reviews

90 Points Wine Spectator

“Dense, with grippy tannins around a core of sandy blackberry, currant and violet flavors, persisting as the finish opens up a bit to let them through. Best after 2018.”

90 Points International Wine Report

“This wine comes from the Heart of the Hill vineyard in Red Mountain and is composed of 80% Cabernet with the rest Petit Verdot. The wine begins with aromas of red bell pepper, dill, blackberry and oak. The Cabernet has medium weight flavors of blackberry, anise, and mocha persist alongside moderate tannins. There is lovely structure to this elegant wine. (Best 2016-2026)”

Vintage

A return to another “classic” Washington growing season, with bud break slightly delayed and a warming trend from late June carried through October for optimal ripening.
